GIA Selects Firm for Internal Assessment

We are pleased to announce, as promised on July 15, that we have identified and retained a prominent, independent law firm to conduct an internal assessment of our actions, policies, and procedures related to the allegations against David Haas.

GIA is committed to learning new and better ways to build a survivor-centered structure for reporting incidents of alleged harassment or abuse going forward, and this is an essential step in that direction. We owe this effort to survivors, to the sacred music community, to our customers, to the publishing industry, and to the world in which we live and work.

Founded in 1941, GIA Publications, Inc. is a family-owned company with more than 10,000 choral and instrumental editions in print, as well as hymnals, recordings, a licensing division, and a wide variety of music education resources. The esteemed choral publisher Walton Music became part of GIA in 2013 and World Library Publications (WLP) joined the GIA family in 2020. Our website is www.giamusic.com.
