

GUIRO — The Guiro (gweer-ro) is a gourd with ridges carved into it. It is played by scraping the ridges with a thin wooden stick. The Guiro is held by placing the thumb and index finger into the set of carved holes. The characteristic sound of the instrument is produced by a series of alternating up and down strokes.

IC

(Alternative instrument: S.D./Rim)