

NOW, BRETHREN, THOUGH WE PART

SATB Voices and Piano

Anonymous
The Brethren's Tune and Hymn Book, 1879

LAKE ENON
Issac B. Woodbury, 1819–1858
Arr. Alice Parker

Lilting, non legato  $\infty = 72$

S, A unis. mp simile

1. Now, breth - ren, though we part, And

T, B unis. mp

1. Now, breth - ren, though we

Piano mp

4

to our homes re - pair— May we be true, and simile

part, And to our homes re - pair— May joined in heart, Like friends of Je - sus are.

we be true, and joined in heart, Like friends of Je - sus

div. mp

2. O let us still pro -

are. 2. O

mp

ceed In Je - sus' work be - low; And let us still pro - ceed In Je - sus' work be -

16

fol - l'wing our tri - um - phant Head To fur - ther con - quests low; And fol - l'wing our tri - um - phant Head To 19

go. fur - ther con - quests go. 3. The T mf
 B mf
opt. div. cresc.

22

vine - yard of the Lord Be - fore his la - b'ers
 vine - yard of the Lord Be - fore his la - b'ers
 T
 B
mf