Verses 1, 2

Cantor:

1. If I have the gift of prophecy, understanding all the mysteries there are,
 2. If I give everything I have to feed

F

know - ing ev - 'ry - thing; if I have faith in all its full - ness to move the poor, and let them take my bod - y to be moun - tains, but I am not, I am noth - ing at all. D.C.

Am D

 burned, but have love, I am noth - ing at all. D.C.

Verse 3

3. Love is patient, love is not jealous.

Love does not rejoice in what is wrong, but love rejoices in the truth. Love is always ready to excuse, to hope, to trust, and to endure what-ever comes.

Verse 4

4. Love never fails. Prophecies will cease, and tongues will be silent, knowledge will pass away; but there are only three things in the end that last:

faith, hope and love, and the greatest of these is love.
